

Mustard Seed Jersey Prayer Update for January 2024

(Written 31st December 2023)

Dear Praying Friends

“PRAYER CHANGES THINGS” – I have a plaque that says that and another in Romanian which has the same message. Thank you for your prayers – I hope in spite of the long delay between prayer updates your prayers have continued.

This year we have really struggled with the logistics of managing the paperwork requirements especially for the importing of humanitarian aid to Romania. Then our Christmas consignment to Ukraine proved incredibly problematic and approx twice the price the consignment we sent in the late spring / early summer.

But thankfully in spite of some nerve-wracking times and much frustration along side of a lot of prayer we got the two aid consignments – one to Romania, one to Ukraine safely delivered to their respective destinations and from each we have had photos showing the safe arrival. Thanks be to God

Please continue to pray for WISDOM as we negotiate the challenges of sending humanitarian aid to Eastern Europe while we still can.

Please continue to pray for UKRAINE, that the war and violence will cease and uphold SORIN and his team as they distribute assistance.

Please continue to pray for ROMANIA, especially the group in our Changed Lives project where there has been flooding affecting their homes. Pray for wisdom for NELU and the resources to deal with the problem

Please pray for GOOD HEALTH for all the volunteers. (The reason the last prayer update didn't happen was because I was ill and unable to do it, then it was the busy-ness of the shoebox season!).

In March we are delighted that visitors from Romania and Ukraine will visit us and update us on the needs and encouragements. Once we have a programme arranged I will be publicizing it

In His service
